

Privacy and Credit Reporting Statement (effective June 2025)

I/We acknowledge that I/we have made an application for credit from the Lender noted in the Schedule and that I/we have provided personal information and credit-related information to the Lender in connection with that application for credit. In this statement, “personal information” has the same meaning as it does in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and “credit-related information” means credit information, credit eligibility information and CP derived information as those terms are defined in the Privacy Act.

The Lender generally collects, uses, holds and discloses the personal information and credit-related information that I/we provide for the purposes of assessing my/our credit-worthiness and for providing credit to me/us. The personal and credit-related information that the Lender may collect, use, hold and disclose includes my/our identity particulars including name, sex, address and previous two addresses, date of birth, name of employer, and details listed under any of my/our government-issued identity documents, including drivers licence or passport details; my/our application for credit or commercial credit; the fact that I/we have applied for credit and the amount; details of the amount and type of credit that have been provided to me/us by third parties or which I/we have guaranteed; any credit rating or credit assessment score that the Lender calculates about me/us or that a credit reporting body might provide to the Lender about me/us; details of any credit-related court proceedings or insolvency applications that relate to me/us; the fact that the Lender is a current credit provider to me/us; the fact that the loan repayments are overdue or that my/our loan repayments are no longer overdue; credit provided to me/us by the Lender has been paid or otherwise discharged and any other personal information or credit-related information that the Lender may collect about me/us either now or in the future.

I/We acknowledge and consent to the Lender also collecting personal and credit-related information about me/us from third parties such as a credit reporting body.

I/We understand and acknowledge:

- that if I/we apply for consumer credit, the Lender may conduct a credit check without asking for my/our consent by requesting information from a credit reporting body about the loans I/we have applied for and taken out in the past, and how those loans were managed;
- the credit reporting body will note that the Lender conducted a credit check, and this will appear on my/our credit report as a ‘credit enquiry’ or an ‘information request’;
- the enquiry may be disclosed to other credit providers, and used and disclosed by the credit reporting body or a credit provider, including in the calculation of a credit score;
- when a credit enquiry is recorded on my/our credit report, it can affect my/our credit score in different ways. It might go up, down, or stay the same. This depends on factors like the type of credit I am / we are applying for, how many other credit checks I/we had recently, and other details in my/our report. Frequent credit applications in a short period are more likely to lower my/our credit score.

The Lender may collect and use personal and credit-related information about me/us for the purposes of:

- providing credit to me/us and ensuring the repayment of that credit;
- where I/we offer to guarantee credit being provided to a third party, any purpose related to the giving of that guarantee;
- assessing the risk of me/us being unable to meet a liability to repay the credit provided to me/us or that might arise under a guarantee entered into, or proposed to be entered into, in respect of mortgage finance given (or to be given) by the Lender to another person;
- risk assessment and management involving securitisation, credit scoring, portfolio analysis, reporting and fraud prevention and claim recovery;
- managing and administering my/our relationship with the Lender;
- if I/we give our consent, for marketing purposes (either by the Lender or by third parties) to promote the products and services provided by the Lender or other organisations to me/us;

- verifying my/our identity and the validity of government-issued identity documents that I/we have provided; and
- complying with legislative and regulatory requirements.

I/We acknowledge that without the provision of my/our personal or credit-related information to the Lender, the Lender may be unable to process or accept my/our application for credit or to operate or manage the credit provided to me/us. I/We also acknowledge that the Lender may need to verify my/our identity (including where required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) or other applicable laws) and that it is impracticable for me/us to remain anonymous or use a pseudonym when dealing with the Lender.

The Lender may disclose personal or credit-related information of the kind it collects about me/us to:

- its related companies;
- debt collection agents and credit management agencies;
- credit reporting bodies and other credit providers;
- its service providers;
- its agents, contractors, and external advisers;
- my/our referees, including my/our employer;

I/We acknowledge and consent to these credit reporting bodies (together with their related bodies corporate and their third party service providers) collecting, holding, using and disclosing my/our personal and credit-related information for identity verification purposes.

If I provide government-issued identity documents, including drivers licence or passport details, the Lender and/or any of the credit reporting bodies (or their related bodies corporate) that the Lender deals with may disclose this information in order to verify the document’s validity with the Document Verification Service managed by the Commonwealth Attorney General’s Department. Additionally, if I/we do not make any repayments or other installments of the credit provided by the Lender to me/us, if I/ we commit fraud or try to do so, or if I/we otherwise commit a serious credit infringement, the Lender may also disclose this information to these credit reporting bodies. I/We acknowledge that this may affect my/our ability to obtain credit in the future.
